South Snohomish County Fire & Rescue is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We value and encourage diversity.

South Snohomish County Fire & Rescue is the largest Regional Fire Authority in Washington serving more than 250,000 residents and responding to more than 35,000 fire and emergency medical calls annually. Working out of 14 stations, we provide service in unincorporated Southwest Snohomish County and the cities of Lynwood, Brier, Edmonds and Mountlake Terrace.

We provide a full range of services, including: fire prevention and suppression; emergency medical services (both basic and advanced life support) transport; investigation; public education; and special operations such as marine response, hazardous materials response, extrication, and technical rescue. We are nationally recognized as a leader in fire-based EMS and Community Paramedicine.

We're proud to be a leader in the fire service and to work with other area agencies to continually improve our efforts to protect citizens. Starting in 2018, the Snohomish County Training Consortium will be running a Snohomish County Training Academy to train our employees on emergency response excellence.

If you would like to be a part of this forward-thinking organization and willing to meet our high standards for providing distinguished service, please consider applying for this position.
